

SERVING KIDS

with Incarcerated Parents

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Background

Learn about mass incarceration, how it is plaguing our communities, and what can be done from a Social Work perspective to bring about change.

How to Deal with Family and Kids

We will look at how this all goes back to trauma, how to have conversations with both the family and children, breaking the cycle and resources to help everyone succeed.

Who is David Garlock

He is a formerly incarcerated national public speaker. He has a BA in Urban Studies focusing on Criminal Justice and Social Welfare. He uses his lived experience to educate the next generation.

When : May 1st

Time: 10 am-12 pm

Location: GSSC Room 216 (ENMU Main Campus)

Social Work Program
Counseling Program

