

RESOLUTION NO. 2022-16

RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF 100% COMMUNITY ENSURING 10 VITAL SERVICES FOR SURVIVING AND THRIVING IN TAOS COUNTY, NEW MEXICO

WHEREAS, the 100% Taos initiative in Taos County, part of the 100% New Mexico initiative of the Anna, Age Eight Institute housed at New Mexico State University, is a data-driven and collaborative countywide strategy with the goal of acknowledging historical trauma and historical service disparities, and preventing adverse childhood experiences, family trauma and social adversity with the goal of creating trauma-free childhoods in fully-resourced communities that lead to safe households, school achievement, community engagement, job readiness, and a self-sufficient and healthy life in New Mexico, and

WHEREAS, the 100% New Mexico initiative is a collective impact process that has identified 10 vital services for surviving and thriving and is committed to ensuring that the 10 services shown to empower children, students and families are accessible to all, and

WHEREAS, the five services for surviving are medical and dental care, behavioral health care, housing security programs, food security programs, and transportation, and

WHEREAS, the five services for thriving are parent support, early childhood education, community schools, youth mentor programs, and job training, and

WHEREAS, we understand that these services are provided by a patchwork of public sector and private sector entities, some supported by state, county, and city governments, and that the strategy is not to ask local governments to fund all ten services; instead, it asks us to leverage our people and policies to support and encourage all the providers of vital services, as well as innovators throughout the public and private sectors, to work in alignment and collaboration, and

WHEREAS, 100% New Mexico provides a tested framework that connects the dots between vital family and community services, informed by data and research, empowered by technology, and guided thoughtfully by collaboration and the commitment to work in alignment with county, city and tribal stakeholders, and

WHEREAS, 100% New Mexico initiative in Taos County has already established a multidisciplinary team representing ten vital service sectors with a shared vision and goals, working to identify gaps in vital service areas and addressing them through a process of assessing, planning, action, and evaluation, and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Taos County Board of County Commissioners supports the 100% New Mexico vision and goal of ensuring that throughout Taos County the 10 services shown to empower children, students, and families are accessible to 100% of our residents.
